

Fruit salad, not blancmange or separate servings

Consultation Liaison Mental Health Nursing & Perinatal and Infant Mental Health Nursing Special Interest Groups Annual Conference

Dr Lesley van Schoubroeck
Commissioner

4 June 2015

Key message

- Mental health education does not need to be a separate serving
- In fact we are more likely to get a better balance if it is integrated with general health services
- But if it is integrated, we want to be sure the proportion is right, and the quality is good.
